

20 SOMETHING PODCAST

HOSTED BY SIERRA HICKMAN

MEET YOUR HOST!

Sierra here! I am a Cal Poly Journalism Senior and audio reporter for Mustang News on KCPR 91.3 FM. Through this, I have found a passion for audio storytelling. I wanted to give that passion a fun new twist! I came up with 20 Something when I was talking with my friends about all of our hysterical and very relatable experiences and thought, "This could be a podcast!" So relax, pour a glass of wine, tune in and get ready to laugh!

20 SOMETHING

Every week the host will give different prompts for listeners to share their experiences, funny anecdotes, give or get advice and open a space to discuss pertinent topics for young people in a comedic and open way. The host will have guest's on the show, who will help go through what the listeners sent in, while also sharing funny tropes and offering advice. We hope that our show helps 20 Something's feel understood while sharing a good laugh.

CHEERS!
